

RESOLUTION

the State Board of Education's Student Heroes Award, created in 2015, recognizes Texas public school students who engage in unselfish acts of kindness and service that benefit their fellow students and leadership skills to bring together a week-long charitable dance class for at-risk youth in

Sneha Shenoy, a senior at Klein High School in Klein ISD, is a servant leader the campaign during the pandemic by asking her fellow students to distancing and by doing so, rewarding them with an artwork of their faces covered with their

Payton Flannery, a senior at Woodville High School in Woodville ISD, is an heads various service organizations and founded the Woodville High Chapter of Eagles for C fellow students mentoring activities, among others; and

Dylan Taylor, a senior at Magnolia West High School in Magnolia ISD, active organizations such as Martha's Kitchen that serves meals to the homeless, spearheads a n elementary school each week, and participates in many other support activities; and

Paisleigh Miller, a third-grade student at Elkhart Elementary School in E compassion by donating her weekly allowance to her school's Giving Tree Project which c