- Make meaningful connections between multiple texts supported by appropriate text evoetws o

-meaning words using context and affixes

- Make connections between multiple texts by identifying meaningful similarities and differences in terms of key ideas and theme
- Explain the author's purpose, message, use of imagery, literal and figurative language, literary and sound devices, and analyze text structures and print and graphic features to achieve specific purposes