

Compensatory Services & COVID-19 School Closures

What are compensatory services?

progress or skills they lost when their special education services were not provided.

Who decides if compensatory services are needed?

The information below will help you to be ready to work with the rest of the ARD committee to make good decisions about compensatory services for your child. services were not provide

